SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 555
By Harper

A RESOLUTION to honor and congratulate Coach Maurice Fitzgerald and the 1997 Pearl-Cohn High School football team on winning their second consecutive Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association Class 4-A state championship.

WHEREAS, with exceptional poise, exemplary determination and great skill, the exciting 1997 Pearl-Cohn High School football team has recently climaxed an excellent season by winning their second consecutive Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association Class 4-A state championship; and

WHEREAS, after suffering a heart-breaking, one-point loss in the first game of the season, Pearl-Cohn fought back to win their remaining 9 regular season contests, impressively beating Maplewood 36-0, Kenwood 42-0, Beech 51-18, Cheatham County 34-8, Goodpasture 36-3, Whites Creek 14-6, Springfield 12-7, Clarksville 62-0 and Stratford 52-0; and

WHEREAS, in the opening rounds of the playoffs, the Firebirds stopped the upward path of the Shelbyville Central Eagles 42-0, charmed the Whites Creek Cobras 30-0, stung the Springfield Yellow Jackets 28-0, and defeated the Dyersburg Trojans in a fiercely fought battle 40-0, to gain a coveted spot in the Clinic Bowl championship game, which was played December 6, 1997 at historic Dudley Field on the campus of Vanderbilt University; and

WHEREAS, Pearl-Cohn trounced Maryville 36-16 in the Clinic Bowl; and
